INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
Re-reading Marx.
New Perspectives
After the Critical Edition

10-13 JULY 2006
Aula 1 - Via Salvecchio, 19
Università degli Studi di Bergamo
Bergamo Alta
08:45 Welcome addresses
Giancarlo Graziola (Head of the Department of Economics, University of Bergamo, Italy)
Mario Cingoli (University of Milano-Bicocca, Italy, National Coordinator of 2004 PRIN)

09:00 MICHAEL HEINRICH (Fachhochschule für Technik und Wirtschaft - University of Applied Sciences, Berlin, Germany)
Reconstruction or deconstruction? Methodological controversies about value and capital and new insights by the critical edition

10:50 Coffee break

11:10 ROLF HECKER (MEGA Editor, Berlin, Germany)
New perspectives opened by the publication of the original manuscripts of Das Kapital, volume II

13:00 End of the morning session

MONDAY JULY 10TH, AFTERNOON

15:00 REGINA ROTH (Berlin Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities - MEGA project, Berlin, Germany)
New perspectives opened by the publication of the original manuscripts of Das Kapital, volume III

16:50 Coffee break

17:10 ROBERTO FINESCHI (University of Siena, Italy)
Dialectics of the commodity and the exhibition of value. The german debate since the ‘70s: a personal survey

19:00 End of the afternoon session

TUESDAY JULY 11TH, MORNING

09:00 ROBERTO FINELLI (University of Bari, Italy)
The presupposition-posit circle in the Grundrisse. Marx beyond historical materialism

10:50 Coffee break

11:10 CHRISTOPHER J. ARTHUR (University of Sussex, England)
The possessive Spirit of Capital

13:00 End of the morning session

TUESDAY JULY 11TH, AFTERNOON

15:00 TONY SMITH (Iowa State University, U.S.A.)
Machinery, productivity gains, and capitalist ideology: an examination of Marx’s 1861-63 Economic Manuscripts

16:50 Coffee break

17:10 FRED MOSELEY (Mount Holyoke College, U.S.A.)
The development of Marx’s theory of the distribution of surplus value in the 1861-63 Economic Manuscripts

19:00 End of the afternoon session

WEDNESDAY JULY 12TH, MORNING

09:00 MARTHA CAMPBELL (Suny Potsdam, U.S.A.)
Commercial and interest-bearing capital in the 1861-63 Economic Manuscripts

10:50 Coffee break

11:10 PATRICK MURRAY (Creighton University, U.S.A.)
The place of the Results of the Immediate Production Process in Capital

13:00 End of the morning session

WEDNESDAY JULY 12TH, AFTERNOON

15:00 MASSIMILIANO TOMBA (University of Padova, Italy)
From history of capital to history in Capital. The intensity of labour and the integration between absolute and relative surplus value in Marx’s Manuscripts of the 60s and 70s

16:50 Coffee break