Master's Degree in
Progettazione e gestione dei Sistemi Turistici
Planning and Management of Tourism Systems
(academic year 2013-14)

Classe: LM-49 –
Curriculum: “Turismo, Società e Sistemi digitali”
Curriculum: “International Tourism and Local Governance”

The University of Bergamo, which boasts over 20 years of academic teaching and research in the field of travel and tourism, offers a Master Course in Tourism: Progettazione e Gestione dei Sistemi Turistici, with two curricula: “Turismo, Società e Sistemi Digitali” (in Italian and English), and “International Tourism and Local Governance” (in English) characterized by a strong multidisciplinary perspective. The teaching staff, made of Professors with a high scientific profile, is from the University of Bergamo and from internationally recognized European and American Universities and Research Centres of excellence. This guarantees extensive cultural perspectives and innovative didactic approaches in a Course which will be held in Bergamo, one of the most beautiful art towns in Italy.

MA President: Prof. Rossana Bonadei
 e-mail: rossana.bonadei@unibg.it
ph. +39 035 2052707

Rossana Bonadei
Professor of English Literature and Cultural Studies - University of Bergamo.
Expert in Travel Theory and Heritage Studies.
Department responsible for Erasmus LLP Placement Programme
Former Director of a Master in Tourism Management and Cultural Mediation at the University of Bergamo (UE funded).
Founder of the MB Course of PGST (Progettazione e Gestione dei Sistemi turistici).
Member of the ESSE (European Society of English Studies).
Member of the Directing Board of AIA (Associazione Italiana di Anglistica)
Member of the Directing Board of SISTUR (Società Italiana di Studi del Turismo)
Member of CeSTIT- Bergamo University (Centro Studi sul Turismo e l'Interpretazione del Territorio)
Scientific Editor of the Series "Scienze del Turismo" (Hoepli, Milan)
 e-mail: rossana.bonadei@unibg.it

MA PLUS

Course lessons located in heritage buildings in the heart of the historic city of Bergamo (Città Alta)
Guided visits to near/around areas of interest; presentation and discussion of case studies and professional narratives related to tourist places and venues
A richly equipped University Library within walking distance (Sant'Agostino)
3 University Research Centres related to Tourism (CST, Cestit, Diathesis Cartographic Lab)
Italian Language Studies for Foreigners at different level - Centro Italiano per Stranieri (CIS)
Foreign Languages Centre and International Mediathque
Mobility programmes for international trainings (LLP Erasmus, and University Placement Office)
TEACHING STAFF

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Title and Affiliations</th>
<th>Research Interests</th>
<th>e-mail</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Daniela Andreini</td>
<td>Senior Researcher in Marketing, University of Bergamo. and Professor in Marketing Management at the Department of Management, Economics and Quantitative Methods of the University of Bergamo. Professor in Managing Product and Brand Innovation at the Department of Management, Economics and Quantitative Methods of the University of Bergamo. Visiting Professor in Multicultural Marketing at the University of Washington Bothell. Member of AMA – American Marketing Association. Research interests: e-commerce, multi-channel retail businesses, communities online, branding and sponsorship.</td>
<td>e-mail: daniela.andreini@unibg.it</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Andreas Blödorn</td>
<td>Full Professor of Literature, Media and Film Studies at the Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster. Member of Deutsche Schillergesellschaft. Member of Deutsche Gesellschaft für die Erforschung des 18. Jahrhunderts. Member of Deutsche Gesellschaft für Semiotik. Member of Gesellschaft für Medienwissenschaft. Member of Deutsche Thomas Mann-Gesellschaft. Member of IVG - Internationale Vereinigung für Germanistik.</td>
<td>e-mail: andreas.bloedorn@uni-muenster.de</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rossana Bonadei</td>
<td>Professor of Cultural Studies in Tourism and Heritage Studies. Area Studies: Travel literature; Travel Theory; Cultural Studies in Tourism; Heritage Studies; Landscape and Urban Studies.  Recent Publications: Naturaleartificiale. Il palinsesto urbano (2010); I sensi del Viaggio (2007). Member of CeSTIT- Bergamo University (Centro Studi sul Turismo e l’Interpretazione del Territorio) since its foundation (1999). Since 2007 Editor of the Series ”Scienze del Turismo” (Hoepli, Milan). Since 2010 Member of the Directing Board of SISTUR (Società Italiana di Studi del Turismo).</td>
<td>e-mail: rossana.bonadei@unibg.it</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Federica Burini</td>
<td>Senior Lecturer of Geography - University of Bergamo. Professor of “Geography of environment and tourism” within the teaching area “Territorial Studies”. In charge with the Study advisory service for the Master’s Degree in PGST and PMTS. Member of the “Diathesis Cartographic Lab” - University of Bergamo (member of the International Cartographic network Eidolon). Member of the most important national Geographic associations (SGI, AGel). Member of the group on Governance of Natural Resources, Equity and Rights (TGER) of the Commission on environment, economy and social policy of the International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN).</td>
<td>e-mail: fburini@unibg.it</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Lorenzo Canova | Lorenzo Canova is Professor of Sociology of Tourism in local development; since 2005 he is in charge of Workshops on Methodology and Tourism Planning. Since 1993 he is Member of AIEST (International Association of Scientific Experts of Tourism); since 2010 he is Member of SISTUR (Società italiana di Studiosi del Turismo). He has been teaching in Master Courses related to Tourism Planning in Italian Universities (Roma, Milano, Cosenza, Camerino, Catania). He regularly presents papers at national and international conferences. He is among the founders and Presidents of ACTA, an association located in Milano specialised in Sustainable Tourism Planning. He has been working on experimental programmes with a number of DGs of the European Commission. He is former Vice-President, and now senior adviser, of ECOTRANS, a European network that promotes research and good practices in sustainable tourism. Since 1998 he cooperate as external expert with the Dipartimento per lo Sviluppo e Coesione Economica del Ministero dello Sviluppo Economico, committed on projects of local development, tourism, culture, environment and integrated territory planning; he is coordinator of Segreteria Tecnica of the programme Sensi Contemporanei, being scientific responsible of the concept and monitoring of audio-visual products, visual arts, design, local development and tourism.

e-mail: lorenzo.canova@unibg.it |
| --- | --- |
| Emanuela Casti | Professor of Geography University of Bergamo
Former Coordinator of the Master’s Degree in PGST – Progettazione e Gestione dei Sistemi Turistici
Founder of the English Master Course in PMTS – Planning and Management of Tourism Systems
In charge with the institutional relations for the Master’s Degree in PGST and PMTS
Member of the Board of directors of the Committee supporting the candidacy of Bergamo as European Capital of Culture 2019
Director of the “Diathesis Cartographic Lab” of the University of Bergamo (member of the International Cartographic network Eidolon)
Coordinator of national and international research projects (PRIN-MIUR; UE; IUCN; Unesco; Cooperazione Italiana)
Director of the series “Atlanti” (Bergamo University Press, Bergamo)
Director of the series “Autrement dit – Le discours cartographique” (L’Harmattan, Paris)
Member of the most important national and international Geographic and Cartographic associations (SGI, AGeI, AIC, UGI, ICA)
e-mail: emanuela.casti@unibg.it |
| Cristina D'Alessandro | Professor of “Geography of environment and tourism” within the teaching area “Territorial Studies”
Associate professor – Institut d’Etudes Politiques de Paris (Sciences-Po), France
Teaching staff of the Paris School of International Affairs (PSIA) and of the Sciences-Po’s Collège universitaire
Member of the most important French Geographic association (Association de Géographes Français)
Member of the scientific committee for the journal Espacesetemps.net
e-mail cristina.dalessandroscarpari@sciences-po.org |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Position and Details</th>
<th>Contact Information</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Caroline Desbiens     | Professor of Geography and holder of the Canada Research Chair in Historical Geography of the North, Department of Geography, Laval University (Quebec, Canada)
Member of the “Centre interuniversitaire d’études québécoises”
Member of “Dialog – Collaborative research network on aboriginal issues”
Member of Centre interuniversitaire d’études et de recherches autochtones
Board Member for the Geographical Names Board of Québec
Research Consultant for the Quebec Museum of Civilisation
Teaching specialties: Cultural and historical geography; aboriginal territoriality and governance; intercultural relations.
E-mail: caroline.desbiens@ggr.ulaval.ca |                                                                                                                                            |                               |
| Roberta Garibaldi     | Senior Lecturer of Marketing and Marketing for Tourism - University of Bergamo
Currently involved in national and international research projects for Institutions, local Administrations and private enterprises.
Research interests: tourism labour market, marketing strategies for museums.
Member of SISTUR (Società Italiana di Studi del Turismo)
Member of CeSTIT- Bergamo University (Centro Studi sul Turismo e l'Interpretazione del Territorio)
E-mail: roberta.garibaldi@unibg.it |                                                                                                                                            |                               |
| Stefano Ghislotti     | Senior Lecturer at the University of Bergamo. Ph. D. at the Université Lumière Lyon 2 (France)
Co-author with Stefano Rosso of Vietnam e ritorno (1996)
In 2003 he published Riflessi interiori. Il film nella mente dello spettatore
In 2008 he published Repetita iuvant. Mnemotecniche del film narrativo.
Member of the SCSMI, Society for the Cognitive Studies of the Moving Image
E-mail: stefano.ghislotti@unibg.it |                                                                                                                                            |                               |
| Alessandra Ghisalberti| PhD in Geography - University of Bergamo;
Teaches ”Mapping Technologies for Tourism” within the area “Geo-referenced Communication for Tourism”
Member of the Diathesis Cartographic Lab - University of Bergamo (within the International Cartographic network Eidolon)
Member of the most important national Geographic associations (SGI, AGeI)
Member of the Center for studies and researches of the Chart of Roma Observatory
Member of the group on Governance of Natural Resources, Equity and Rights (TGER) of the Commission on environment, economy and social policy of the International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN)
E-mail: aleghisa@unibg.it |                                                                                                                                            |                               |
| Werner Gronau         | Director of the “Tourism&Transport Research Center” of the University of Nicosia/Cyprus
Professor for Tourism, Travel & Transport at the University of Stralsund/Germany.
He holds a German Degree in Human Geography from the Technical University of Munich and a PhD in Tourism Studies (“Leisure mobility and leisure style”) from the University of Paderborn.
Member of the British “Leisure Studies Association”, the “German Society of Tourism Research” and the Cyprus based “EuroMed Research Business Institute”.
His research interests focus on sustainable Destination Development and Management.
E-mail: werner.gronau@fh-stralsund.de |                                                                                                                                            |                               |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Position and Affiliations</th>
<th>E-mail</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Peter Keller        | Professor of Tourism Management - Faculty of Business and Economics of the University of Lausanne (Switzerland)
President of the International Association of Scientific Experts in Tourism (AIEST)
Member of Strategic Group and Experts of the UN World Tourism Organization OEDC Policy Adviser.
Member of the Executive Board of Directors of Switzerland's National Tourism | infb@profkeller.ch                        |
| Andrea Macchiavelli | Senior Lecturer of Tourism Economics - University of Bergamo Director of CeSTIT (Tourism Centre of the University of Bergamo).
Formerly Director of a Master in Tourism Management and Cultural Mediation (University of Bergamo)
Currently involved in national and international research projects for Institutions, local Administrations and private enterprises
Member of AIEST (Association International d'Experts Scientifiques du Tourisme)
Member of Scientific Board of the Turistica, quarterly of Tourism Management. He is expert in Mountain Tourism | andrea.macchiavelli@unibg.it             |
| Stefania M. Maci    | Senior Lecturer of English Language - University of Bergamo
Member of CERLIS (Research Centre on Languages for Specific Purposes)
Member of BAAL (British Associatin of Applied Linguistics)
Member of AIA (Associazione Italiana di Anglistica)
Currently involved in national and international research projects, with particular regard to ESP and Tourism (promotional and specialised traits in English for tourism; the web language of tourism).
Amongst her publications are: "The web-language of tourism" (2007), "Glocal Features of In-flight Magazines: when Local Becomes Global. An Explorative Study" (2012) and the volume The Language of Tourism (2010). | stefania.maci@unibg.it                   |
| Rosanna Pavoni      | She teaches “Museum and Territory” at the PGST Master’s Degree.
Art Historian, she has directed the House Museum Bagatti Valsecchi in Milan until 2002.
Elected Secretary of the International Committee of Historic House Museums (DEMHIST/ICOM) in 1999, she became its President in February 2002: she launched the research about the different typologies of house museums and has contributed to defining the identity and mission of house museums worldwide.
In 2010 her book Case Museo in Italia has been translated in English (House Museums in Italy. New cultural itineraries: poetry, history, art, architecture, music, arts & crafts, tastes and traditions, Gangemi, Roma).
She has created the museological structure of Museo Adriano Bernareggi Diocesi di Bergamo.
She is now Director of the Fondazione Studio Museo Vico Magistretti in Milan, devoted to the great Italian designer, and the team leader of the web site www.casemuseoitalia.it | rosanna.pavoni@unibg.it                  |
Roberto Peretta

Graduated in Philosophy, and specialized in IT for Humanities, he teaches IT for Tourism Managers at the PGST master’s Degree since its foundation.

Resident consultant for digital communication 1999-2009 (Touring Club Italiano).

Lecturer 2000-2012 (Università di Bergamo).

Member of Ifitt, Sistur, and CeSTIT.

E-mail: roberto.peretta@unibg.it

Giuseppe Psaila

Giuseppe Psaila is Senior Researcher at the Department of Engineering at Università degli Studi di Bergamo. He has got the degree of Electronic Engineer at Politecnico di Milano in 1993. On June 30, 1998 he has obtained the PhD degree in Ingegneria Informatica e dei Sistemi at Dipartimento di Automatica e Informatica del Politecnico di Torino. From November 1997 to October 2000 he was Research Assistant at Politecnico di Milano (Dept. of Electronics and Information). Since November he has been Aggregate Professor at the University of Bergamo.

E-mail: giuseppe.psaila@unibg.it

Gianluca Rossoni

Professor of Tourism Legislation - University of Bergamo

Tourism Senior Legal Expert for the EU funded project in Bosnia Herzegovina

Tourism Legal Expert for General Pan-Hellenic Federation of Tourism Enterprises, Greece – Legal Advice on “EU Passenger Transportation Legal Framework”

Board Member of the international Forum of Travel and Tourism Advocates

Board Member of “Rivista italiana di diritto del turismo” (Franco Angeli Ed.)

Member of the Lawyer Bar Association - Padua, Italy

Xena, Eurodesk and cultural association in Padua - Legal Adviser

E-mail: gianluca.rossoni@unibg.it

Noel B. Salazar

Senior Researcher of the Research Foundation - Flanders (FWO), IMMRC - Anthropology, Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Leuven (Belgium)

Visiting Research Associate, Centre for Tourism and Cultural Change, Leeds Metropolitan University (UK) Postdoctoral Researcher, Foreign Policy, Tourism & Recreation Advice Centre, Flemish Government (Belgium) Research Fellow at University of Pennsylvania, School of Arts and Sciences

E-mail: noel.salazar@soc.kuleuven.be

Mario Salomone

Environmental sociologist - University of Bergamo.

Member of the: International Sociological Association (ISA, RC 24 and RC26);

European Sociological Association (ESA); Associazione Italiana di Sociologia (AIS) – Sezione Territorio; Associazione Italiana per gli studi sulla Qualità della Vita (AIQUAV); MAHB (Millennium Alliance for Humanity and the Biosphere, Stanford University); Founding member of International Environmental Communication Association (IECA)

Editor of the Italian monthly review “.eco” and of the international scientific journal “Cultura della sostenibilità”

Research Interests: local development, sustainability, green economy, education, food, patterns of sustainable consumption and production, Ecomuseums, social and cooperative economy, social networks, rural and urban sociology from the sustainability angle.

E-mail: mario.salomone@unibg.it
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Position and Experience</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Frans Schouten</td>
<td>Professor at Breda University NHTV (Institute for Tourism and Transport). Consultant for the management of cultural heritage at the UNESCO/UNDP projects for the integrated strategic development of cultural tourism (Indonesia, South Pacific, China, Central Asian Republics). Chair in Unesco courses on heritage tourism. Member of the editorial board of the magazine &quot;Levend Erfgoed&quot; (Living Heritage). Member of the board of &quot;Best of Heritage&quot; at Zagreb. E-mail: frans@didifrans.nl</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Terry Stevens</td>
<td>Formerly Professor of Tourism Management at Swansea Metropolitan University. Visiting Professor at three universities in the Uk. Managing Director of Stevens &amp; Associates, International Tourism Consultants. Member of American Leisure Academy; Member Royal Society of Arts. Member of Tourism Society. Clients include: UNWTO, ILO, UNESCO, national tourist boards and private sector clients. Consultancy work in 40 countries. Former Vice Chair Wales National Tourist Board. E-mail: daphne@stevensassoc.co.uk</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Simon Taylor</td>
<td>Senior Lecturer in Law, University Paris Diderot, Paris 7. Reporter for the British Institute of International and Comparative Law. Responsible for the law option for the Applied Languages degree at University Paris Diderot. E-mail: SimontaylorP7@aol.com</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jean-Michel Tobelem</td>
<td>Master Professor at Amiens University, Angers University, CELSA (Sorbonne U.), École du Louvre, Paris 1 University IREST, Paris 1 University DESUP, Paris 3, Saint-Étienne University. Director of OPTION CULTURE, France. Responsible for: a) Studies for the ministry of culture, the ministry of tourism, local authorities, NGO, and corporations; b) Participation to the NEMUSproject (creation of jobs in the museum sector, European Commission). Member of ICOM and former member of the board of the INTERCOM (management) committee of ICOM (International council of museums). Director of the series &quot;Gestion de la culture&quot; at l'Harmattan. Member of the editorial board of the international Journal Museum Management &amp; Curatorship. E-mail: option.culture@wanadoo.fr</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Davide Torsello</td>
<td>Professor of Social Anthropology - University of Bergamo. PhD at the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology. MA in cultural anthropology at the Hirosaki University (Japan). Research interests: post-socialism, trust, social networks, social transformation in rural societies, corruption and value orientations, through field research in Japan and Europe. E-mail: davide.torsello@unibg.it</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Peter Van Mensch</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>------------------</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Professor of Cultural Heritage, Reinwardt Academie Amsterdam (Netherlands)
  Lecturer International School of Museology, Celje (Slovenia)
  Former president of the ICOM International Committee for Museology and for Collecting
  Member of the editorial board of Museums & Society (Leicester)
  Member of the editorial board of The Problems of Museology (St Petersburg) |
| e-mail: peter.vanmensch@ahk.nl |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Mario Verdicchio</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Lecturer in Computer Sciences; teaches courses on computer science fundamentals, operating systems, and theoretical computer science.
  Graduated in 2000 at Politecnico di Milano in computer engineering with a thesis on e-commerce in Italy.
  Phd in information engineering in the same university in 2004, with a thesis on artificial communication languages. Post-doc grant from a MIUR (Italian Ministry of University and Research) project on a academic online collaboration site.
  Since 2011 he is also teaching at the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature. He authored more than 40 articles published in international journals and conference proceedings (including Computational Intelligence and Journal of Computer Security), and over the years expanded the scope of his research from the formalization of communication processes to the modeling of more general aspects of human behavior, including issues related to digital identity on the Web. |
| e-mail: mario.verdicchio@unibg.it |
UNIBG TUTORS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Raul Calzoni</th>
<th>Davide Del Bello</th>
<th>Andrea Trovesi</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Raul Calzoni</td>
<td>Davide Del Bello</td>
<td>Andrea Trovesi</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Senior Lecturer of German Studies - University of Bergamo
Delegate for Internationalization of the Master's Degree Programme on Planning and Management of Tourism Systems
Partner of the "ACUME-European Thematic Network under the Socrates Programme on Cultural Memory: an Interdisciplinary Approach" (2004-2006) and "ACUME2-European Thematic Network under The Socrates Programme on Interfacing Science, Literature and the Humanities" (2006-2009)
Member of Kempowski Gesellschaft
Member of A.I.G. - Italian German Studies Association
Member of IVG - Internationale Vereinigung für Germanistik
e-mail: raul.calzoni@unibg.it | Senior Lecturer of Slavic Philology and Linguistics - Faculty of Foreign Languages and Literatures, University of Bergamo
Member of AIS (Associazione Italiana Slavisti)
Member of the editorial board of Studi slavistici (Firenze) and Linguistica e Filologia (Bergamo)
Main areas of research:
a) contrastive grammar of Slavic languages
b) language contact in Eastern Europe,
c) East-European cultural studies.
e-mail: andrea.trovesi@unibg.it | Senior Lecturer of Slavic Philology and Linguistics - Faculty of Foreign Languages and Literatures, University of Bergamo
Member of AIS (Associazione Italiana Slavisti)
Member of the editorial board of Studi slavistici (Firenze) and Linguistica e Filologia (Bergamo)
Main areas of research:
a) contrastive grammar of Slavic languages
b) language contact in Eastern Europe,
c) East-European cultural studies.
e-mail: andrea.trovesi@unibg.it |