

Prof. Dr. Erik E. Lehmann

Chair of Management and Business Organization
University of Augsburg

Erik Lehmann studied Business Administration at the Friedrich-Alexander University in Nuremberg. He received his doctorate at the University of Rostock with a thesis about “asymmetric information and advertising”. After his PhD he moved to the University of Konstanz and received his habilitation in Business Administration in 2005.

In 2004 he accepted a W2 position in the department “Entrepreneurship, Growth and Public Policy” at the Max Planck institute for economics in Jena.

Since September 2005, he holds a chair for Business Administration at the University of Augsburg with a focus on corporate governance and organization.

Erik Lehmann is Associate editor of Small Business Economics. He published papers on international journals such as European Finance Review, Research policy, Journal of Economic Behavior & Organization, Journal of Technology Transfer, Industry and Innovation, Small Business Economics, Review of Accounting and Finance, Empirica, Journal of the Economics of Business, Journal of Management and Governance.